

So I'm an Interior Designer....

1020 Glass Art & Home Décor appreciate the vital role designer's play in assisting customers create a unique personal home or commercial environment. To show our commitment to you, the interior designer, we are pleased to offer a special Designer Advantage ("DA") discount on our products to registered design professionals.

How Designer Advantage discount works?

Registered design professionals will need to present trade credentials* at the time of purchase and will receive a DA discount based on the amount of each transaction, discount not apply to shipping cost and varies by product category.

- Receive Up to a 15% Discount - Shipping not included*, Minimum Purchase $150.

Discount or Rebate - You Decide

Receive a discount at time of sale as a deduction off purchase price or instead receive a direct rebate payable to designer upon cleared funds and successful installation.

What products qualify for the Trade Discount?

The discount is available on any full-price items (discount/rebate determined by item selected). The discount is not valid on sale items, previously placed orders or gift card purchases. The offer cannot be combined with any other promotion or discount incentives.

Note for Special Order Chandelier and Wall Art:
